

Telecommunications company

Etisalat

Rank: 11th

Score: 10%

Out of 12 telecommunication companies.

basic information missing

Telefónica	1		49%
Vodafone	2		42%
AT&T	3		37%
Telenor	3		37%
Deutsche Telekom	5		34%
Orange	6		27%
MTN	7		23%
América Móvil	8		22%
Axiata	9		16%
Bharti Airtel	10		15%
Etisalat	11		10%
Ooredoo	12		6%

0%100%

key findings missing

Key Takeaways:

key takeaways missing

Key Recommendations:

key recommendations missing

Services evaluated:

Prepaid mobile

Postpaid mobile

Fixed-line broadband

The 2020 RDR Index covers policies that were active between February 8, 2019 and September 15, 2020. Policies that came into effect after September 15, 2020 were not evaluated for this Index.

Scores reflect the average score across the services we evaluated, with each service weighted equally.

Download data and sources

Changes since 2019:

analysis missing

+ 6.42 points

Gained 6.42 points on comparable indicators since the 2019 RDR Index.

Governance

Freedom of Expression

Privacy

We rank companies on their approach to governance, and their policies and practices that affect freedom of expression and privacy.

Governance 13%

governance missing

Indicators

G1. Policy Commitment

8%

G2. Governance and management oversight

8%

G3. Internal implementation

G3. Internal implementation		38%
G4. Human rights due diligence		0%
G5. Stakeholder engagement and accountability		0%
G6. Remedy and appeals		22%

Freedom of Expression

7%

freedom of expression missing

Indicators

F1. Access to policies		29%
F2. Notification of policy changes		0%
F3. Process for policy enforcement		23%
F4. Data about policy enforcement		0%
F5. Process for responding to third-party requests to restrict content or accounts		0%
F6. Data about government demands to restrict for content and accounts		0%
F7. Data about private requests for content or account restriction		0%
F8. User notification about content and account restriction		17%
F9. Network management (telecommunications companies)		0%
F10. Network shutdown (telecommunications companies)		13%
F11. Identity policy		0%
F12. Algorithmic content curation, recommendation, and/or ranking systems		NA
F13. Automated software agents (“bots”)		NA

privacy missing

Indicators

P1. Access to policies affecting users' privacy	50%
P2. Notification of changes	0%
P3. User information collection and inference	8%
P4. Sharing of user information	25%
P5. Purpose for collecting, inferring, and sharing user information	0%
P6. Retention of user information	0%
P7. Users' control over their own user information	0%
P8. Users' access to their own user information	17%
P9. Collection of user information from third parties	0%
P10. Process for responding to demands for user information	0%
P11. Data about demands for user information	0%
P12. User notification about third-party requests for user information	0%
P13. Security oversight	83%
P14. Addressing security vulnerabilities	0%
P15. Data breaches	0%
P16. Encryption of user communication and private content (digital platforms)	NA
P17. Account security (digital platforms)	NA
P18. Inform and educate users about potential risks	0%

About

2020 Methodology

Publications

2020 Corporate Accountability Index

Privacy Policy

Funders and partners

RankingRights

RankingRights

RSS

info@rankingdigitalrights.org